

The 2025 Nevada State AFL-CIO Arnold/Jones/Evans Scholarship

Nevada high school seniors in the graduating class of 2025 with a 2.0 or higher GPA may apply for this scholarship. One parent must be an active or retired member in good standing of any local union affiliated with the Nevada State AFL-CIO. Student must be planning to attend a college, university, vocational or trade school. Five scholarships in the amount of $2,000 each will be offered.

Verification of college enrollment (class schedule) will be required during the summer before the check is mailed to the college. Scholarship funds must be applied toward tuition, fees and other appropriate educational expenses. These funds will be disbursed in equal payments over two semesters.

Five scholarships in the amount of $2,000 each will be offered. Deadline to apply is January 31, 2025.

Supplemental Questions

1. Are you a 2025 Nevada high school graduate?
2. Is your parent an active or retired member in good standing of any local union affiliated with the Nevada State AFL-CIO?
3. Please list the Local Union & Local Union number of your parent who is an active or retired member in good standing of any local union affiliated with the Nevada State AFL-CIO.
4. Statement of your career goals. Please include the name of school you will be attending after high school and your career goals.
5. Essay - 1,000 words minimum: Labor unions often play a pivotal role in educating their members about current events, labor policies, and ways to get involved in their union. Politically, most labor unions interview and endorse labor-friendly candidates at all levels, from local to presidential, make campaign donations to these candidates, and conduct campaign programs to mobilize their members to vote for them. Although most labor unions endorsed candidates in the 2024 U.S. presidential election, some unions opted not to endorse any candidate. Should labor unions get involved in politics? Why or why not? What are the advantages and disadvantages?

The 2025 Arnold/Jones/Evans Scholarship is administered through the Public Education Foundation.
